

CONTINGENT EXPENSES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

LETTER

FROM THE

CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,

TRANSMITTING

A report upon the expenditure of the fund appropriated for the contingent expenses of the House of Representatives for the year 1842, &c.

DECEMBER 13, 1842.

Referred to the Committee of Accounts.

CLERK'S OFFICE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES U. S.,

December 5, 1842.

SIR: In obedience to the 20th section of the act entitled "An act legalizing and making appropriations for such necessary objects as have been usually included in the general appropriation bills without authority of law, and to fix and provide for certain incidental expenses of the Departments and offices of the Government, and for other purposes," approved August 26, 1842, which requires that the Clerk of the House of Representatives report to the House a detailed statement of the manner in which the contingent fund of the House has been expended, giving the names of every person to whom any portion thereof has been paid, and if for any thing furnished, the quantity and price, and if for any services rendered, the nature of such service, and the time employed, and the particular occasion or cause, in brief, that rendered such service necessary, and the amount of all former appropriations in each case on hand, either in the Treasury or in the hands of any disbursing officer or agent, I have the honor to make the following report, contained in papers marked A, B, and C.

A. A detailed statement of the expenditure of the contingent fund for one year, ending December 1, 1842.

B. An analytical statement of stationery purchased during the same period. This statement also shows the amount of printing done by order of the House of Representatives during the 2d session of the 27th Congress, and the balance of money on hand on the 1st of December, 1842.

C. A statement of the expenditure of the appropriation of $98,335 85, made per act entitled "An act making appropriations for the civil and diplomatic expenses of Government for the year 1842," approved May 18, 1842, for a deficiency in the appropriations for the 25th Congress, on account of the contingent and incidental expenses of the House, namely, for printing, lithographing, binding, and books.

With great respect, your most obedient servant,

MW. ST. CLAIR CLARKE,

Clerk House of Representatives U. S.

Hon. JOHN WHITE,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

[A.]

Statement of the expenditure of the contingent fund of the House of Representatives of the United States, from December 1, 1841, to December 1, 1842, prepared in obedience to the 20th section of an act entitled "An act legalizing and making appropriations for such necessary objects as have been usually included in the general appropriation bills without authority of law, and to fix and provide for certain incidental expenses of the Departments and offices of the Government, and for other purposes," approved August 26, 1842.
